“Perfumed plum, strawberry and watermelon aromas lead to a richer fruit presence on the palate, gaining depth and wild blackberry flavors and ending with a long, full-bodied and fruit-driven finish.”

“...Full-bodied flavors of earthy black cherry, black raspberry and plum. Serious extract that commands your attention but not jammy. Balanced tannins and complimentary integration of oak. The finish is long and intense, leaving behind a fruit wonderland.”

“Medium ruby color; attractive, intense, earthy, black cherry and blackberry fruit aroma with floral notes and hints of cinnamon and vanilla; medium-full body; herbal, textured, well balanced, ripe cherry fruit flavors with bright acidity and a silky mouthfeel; medium to medium-full tannin; lingering aftertaste. Shows some elegance and complexity...very highly recommended.”

2012 ESTATE PINOT NOIR, ANDERSON VALLEY | 90 POINTS

“Lazy Creek is owned by Don and Rhonda Carano, who are known for the big, generous red wines they produce under their Ferrari-Carano label. This Pinot Noir wine gives due respect to that grape’s more subtle charms. An obvious core of ripe red fruit dominates the flavor components, but an undertow of earthier, secondary tastes keeps the wine interesting and lively.

The texture is luxuriously silky, and the finish is nicely drawn out.”

“This gorgeous wine is translucent dark ruby in color, with an uplifted nose of bright cherry and berry, mint, cedar and menthol. The fruit really pops in the mouth, with a good palate entry and a mild, integrated grip at the end. As the wine opens up, an enticing cinnamon-mocha impression emerges. Under the ownership of Don and Rhonda Carano of Ferrari-Carano fame, the Anderson Valley estate has really come into its own.”
